REFLECTIONS FOR WORSHIP

Some people construct a Christianity which consists entirely of a personal relationship to Jesus Christ and has virtually nothing to do with the church. The major lesson taught by the first half of Ephesians 3, however, is the biblical centrality of the church. The church is central to history, central to the gospel, central to Christian living, and central to the “rulers and authorities in the heavenly places” (Ephesians 3:10). - John Stott

For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. - Ephesians 6:12
