

OFFICER NOMINEES

These men were recommended by the congregation in 2017 as candidates for the Class of 2020. Under the leadership of pastors and elders, they have successfully completed study in the Scripture, the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Book of Church Order. The Westminster PCA session has approved the nominees and called a congregational meeting Sunday, August 27 to elect the men listed below as officers.

DEACON candidates

Stephen
Blanks

Wife: Allison

Children: Brady and Quinn

Occupation: strategist, client trade analytics

Years at WPC: 7

Hobbies/Downtime: spend time with my family, playing together, traveling, and road biking

Serving as an officer, I most look forward to: honoring God by serving His church

Will Bosdell

Wife: Alison

Children: Ansley, Sadie and Liam

Occupation: director of technical operations for US Medical Systems

Years at WPC: 21

Hobbies/Downtime: yard wrk/ gardening, watching football, and spending time at the lake with family

Serving as an officer, I most look forward to: getting involved with diaconal ministries and helping both physically and spiritually to the best of my ability

Daniel
Gauden

Wife: Jessica

Children: Lily and John

Occupation: business manager

Years at WPC: 13

Hobbies/Downtime: outdoor adventures-water related

Serving as an officer, I most look forward to: building relationships and serving others

Rich
Lane

Wife: Amy

Children: Morgan, Garrett and Jackson

Occupation: commercial real estate brokerage and development

Years at WPC: 7

Hobbies/Downtime: boating, fishing, camping, traveling

Serving as an officer, I most look forward to: working with fellow believers to serve the Lord by meeting needs of those most in need

Gray
Owens

Wife: Ashley

Children: Page and Birdie

Occupation: account representative for Morrisette Packaging

Years at WPC: 6

Hobbies/Downtime: sports, concerts, dinner with friends, adventures with my family

Serving as an officer, I most look forward to: helping and planning behind the scenes; enabling others to serve

Brent
Williams

Wife: Patty

Children: Mattea Joiner, Zion, and Asa

Occupation: Outside sales for CABTEQ

Years at WPC: 6

Hobbies/Downtime: spending time with family going to the lake, Carowinds and being outdoors

Serving as an officer, I most look forward to: serving as a family and using my Stephen Ministry training as a deacon

OFFICER NOMINEES

These men were recommended by the

congregation in 2017 as candidates for the Class of 2020. Under the leadership of pastors and elders, they have successfully completed study in the Scripture, the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Book of Church Order. The Westminster PCA session has approved the nominees and called a congregational meeting Sunday, August 27 to elect the men listed below as officers.

ELDER candidates

Mark Bebber

Wife: Laura

Occupation: Project Engineer for CABTEQ Solutions

Years at WPC: 5

Hobbies/Downtime: playing soccer, eating all kinds of incredible foreign food, and traveling all over the world both on mission and vacation

Serving as an officer, I most look forward to: how I can grow as a shepherd in caring for this congregation and finding out how I can continue to support the mission and vision of our church

Chip
Creagh

Wife: Angie

Children: Addison and Ellen

Occupation: medical physics

Years at WPC: 23

Hobbies/Downtime: yard work, hiking, working out, playing sports

Serving as an officer, I most look forward to: I have a real passion for seeing adults grow in their appreciation and love for the great God we serve

Terry
Crimm

Wife: Beth

Children: Lance, Paul and Joel

Occupation: psychotherapist

Years at WPC: 21

Hobbies/Downtime: spending time with family, exercising, photography

Serving as an officer, I most look forward to: serving with others who love God, the Church and God's word for the building up of the saints at Westminster

Scott
Dillon

Wife: Amy

Children: Stephen, James, Andrew and Rebecca

Occupation: head of school

Years at WPC: 3

Hobbies/Downtime: spending time with family, golf, yardwork, fishing

Serving as an officer, I most look forward to: extending the use of my gifts to the church as I have had opportunity to do at WCCS ...also, to growing those gifts to be better used by God in both areas

Richard Lambert

Wife: Elizabeth

Children: Amanda and Cooper

Occupation: professor

Years at WPC: 21

Hobbies/Downtime: reading, writing, hunting, fishing

Serving as an officer, I most look forward to: opportunities to teach

Steve Moore

Wife: Beth

Children: Elizabeth and Kathyrene

Occupation: general contracting

Years at WPC: 43

Hobbies/Downtime: yard work, golf, boating and traveling

Serving as an officer, I most look forward to: serving the Lord with all my heart, soul, mind and strength

